

Proverbs School Challenge

Can you write a short modern-day proverb?

The Bible book of Proverbs contains many sayings that can give us the wisdom to live our lives well.

Here are some suggested topics you can write about:

Social media

Friendship

Hobbies

School

Pets

Environment

Gratitude

Patience

Families

Justice

Too much honey is bad for you, and so is trying to win too much praise. (Prov. 25:27)

An honest answer is a sign of true friendship. (Prov. 24:26)

Thoughtless words can wound as deeply as any sword, but wisely spoken words can heal. (Prov. 12:18)

Here are some examples our team have put together:

- Being connected is good, connecting with God is better.
- Never dig straight down, or you might fall in lava. (Minecraft)
- First look at people on the inside before judging them on the outside.
- Take a moment to pause before "Send" and perhaps there will be less to mend!
