

THE ADVENT WREATH

FOUR SERVICES FOR HOME AND FAMILY

A SIMPLE CEREMONY OF LIGHTING THE CANDLES OF THE ADVENT WREATH
AND WELCOMING THE BIRTH OF CHRIST: THE LIGHT OF THE WORLD

Placing four candles on green fronds has become a symbol of Advent in many Christian homes, especially in the Germanic countries and in North America.

The Advent wreath, with the progressive lighting of its four candles, Sunday after Sunday, until the Solemnity of Christmas, is a recollection of the various stages of salvation history prior to Christ's coming, and a symbol of the prophetic light gradually illuminating the long night prior to the rising of the Sun of justice. (See: Malachi 3:20; Luke 1:78).

Directory on Popular Piety & the Liturgy N.98

The wreath can be the focal point in the home during the journey of Advent; the lighting of the candles being part of the family meal.

The colour of the candles is not the main issue, and of course be sure that your Advent wreath is not a fire risk or danger to you or your home.

Each member of the household can have a part to read and share in these four services.

FIRST SUNDAY / SATURDAY EVENING

Gather around the Advent wreath, which currently has no candles lit.

Together, make the sign of the cross, saying:

In the name of the + Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Leader: Our help is in the name of the Lord.

All: Who made heaven and earth.

Leader: Let us praise God,

All: Who enlightens every heart, now and forever.

INTRODUCING THE CELEBRATION:

Leader:

At this time of the year, we know of short days and long nights, and each day we look forward more and more to the coming of light.

During Advent, we wait in joyful hope for the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ in glory and the celebration of our Saviour's birth.

Today we pray that God's blessing, in the sign of this wreath will keep us watchful in prayer. May it make us witnesses to Jesus, the Lord of light and love who has taken our human flesh to bring the Father's love to all people.

BIBLE READING:

Leader:

Let us listen to the God who speaks to us in Scripture.
Let us remember the long period of expectation that preceded Jesus' birth.
We know that God sustained Israel's hope in the coming of the Messiah through the prophets.

Reader:

"Behold, the days are coming, declares the Lord, when I will fulfil the promise I made to the house of Israel and the house of Judah. In those days and at that time I will cause a righteous Branch to spring up for David, and he shall execute justice and righteousness in the land. In those days Judah will be saved, and Jerusalem will dwell securely. And this is the name by which it will be called: 'The Lord is our righteousness.'"

Jeremiah 33:14-16

THE LIGHTING OF THE FIRST CANDLE:

While one member of the household reads this prayer, another member may light the first candle:

proclaiming a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins. As it is written in the book of the words of Isaiah the prophet,

“The voice of one crying in the wilderness:
‘Prepare the way of the Lord,
make his paths straight.
Every valley shall be filled,
and every mountain and hill shall be made low,
and the crooked shall become straight,
and the rough places shall become level ways,
and all flesh shall see the salvation of God.’”

Let us remember this joyful hope that the salvation already accomplished by Christ has been born again this year. And we await his glorious second coming as Lord of History and universal Judge.

Reader:

Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, rejoice.

Let your reasonableness be known to everyone. The Lord is at hand; do not be anxious about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus.

Finally brothers, whatever is true, whatever is honourable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is commendable, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things ... practice these things, and the God of peace will be with you.

ARE WE READY FOR JESUS TO BE BORN?

Are we ready to receive and welcome Jesus whenever he comes, however he comes? In this focus on past, present and future, Advent symbolises both our individual journey and our collective journey as the Catholic Church. We live in the in-between period of our salvation - between the two comings, and this is at the heart of the tension of Advent. We wait in expectation since Christ, risen from the dead and now present among us in mystery, will be revealed to everyone on the Last Day as the glorious Son of our heavenly Father.

As Catholics we affirm that Christ is truly present in the world today. This recognition and faith that we share with those who went before us, in our Lord's revelation, provides a clear basis for holy living. Emerging from a deep sense that we live between the times, in the middle times and in changing times, Christ is our one anchor. So with the Church during this season, we celebrate God's incarnation, we hold onto our hope in his future kingdom and know that one day we really will meet him in glory.

PRAYER

God of Advent, Christmas and Epiphany, you have given us many signs and prophecies about your Son Jesus Christ's birth, and they have been fulfilled.

May we see from the past to the present,
the present into the future,
that your loving hand guides all things.
Your glory is forever within our reach.
Amen.
